Brother Smith illustrated humorously

the ignorance of the ministry.
Dr. Roy stated that we had said that the people were hungry for ideas, and that made a demand for an educated ministry.

The women have a department of their own which is doing a great work. The women's meeting was largely attended by the ladies. Mrs. Steele gave an account of her orphanage in Chattanooga. The orphanage was the outgrowth of the yellow-fever plague. She saw much suffering among orphans. From that the orphan asylum grew. The citizens of Chattanooga help along in the work. Twenty-seven children are in the home. The county pays $5 per month for the feeding of each child. Mrs. Steele spoke of the

THEEVEOFVICTORY!

We shall neglect no honest means to win-Like the great Democratic party, we have been ville.

The churches within the boun's of the conference are represented by delegates.

The opening sermon was preached by the Rev. Joseph E. Smith, in which the preacher emphasized the importance of the baptism of the Holy Grost.

Yesterday morning the association met in the chapel of LeMoyne Institute and participated in the opening exercises of the school. Remarks were made by the moderator, the Rev. S. P. Smith, and Prof. H. S. Bennett, of Fisk University, Nashville. IF GOODS CAN DO IT, We will do it!

L ACCOMPLISH IT.

We will accomplish it!

The morning nour was taken up in organization and in hearing the narrative of the state of the churches.

The reports from the churches showed on the whole an encouraging state of religious processity. We will get it!

on the whole an encouraging state of religious prosperity.

The Rev. Y. B. Sims, of Little Rock, Ark., re a paper on "The Demand for Educate dinisters and How to Secure a Supply Them." The paper was brief but full of good points, and elicited applause as he closed.

The question was discussed by Prof. H. S. Bennett, of Fisk University. He thought that the demands of the age were such that ministers must be of the highest culture. This was the exact work that Fisk University was doing.

The Rev. Joseph E. Smith thought that the varied duties of the minister demanded that he be educated.

The Rev. B. A. Imes thought that M. & E. G. Kremer & Co that he be educated.

The Rev. B. A. Imes thought that the number of graduates who were going into the ministry was growing less. He thought this ought to be remedied.

The Rev. J. M. Shippen thought we ought to teach the children to look upon the Christian life in a different light from the usual one. The school must look particularly to this and encourage ways and AMUSEMENTS.

annual meeting was a great event. He gave an encouraging report in regard to the condition of the association; that the interest in the work of educating the colored people was greater now than ever before. According to the report, the meeting must have been a very interesting one. In closing, he spoke of the mountain work among whita people as one of great importance. Dr. Roy humorously referred to the ignorance of some of the old ministers. AUCTION SALES. Sheriff's Sale of Personal Property. Sherihi's Saio of Fersonal Property.
